

WELCOME to the August edition of the Aspen International Newsletter.

We have decided for this newsletter to outline all of our current partners, as our product lines are continually growing. As always, even if you can not find the manufacturer or product we probably can!

WEBSITE

As you may have seen over the last few months we are continually updating our website with our new suppliers offerings as well as any new product lines from our existing suppliers.

Please let us know of anything you would like to see on our website or indeed change to make it better for you.

BIANCHI

BIANCHI

In 1958 John Bianchi had a vision of what he thought a duty holster should be and set out to develop a line of products that carried out that vision. Since that time almost 50 years ago, Bianchi holsters, belts and accessories have been used in police, military and sporting applications the world over.

Bianchi International continues to evolve their product lines in order to keep pace with today's customer demands. They are continuously researching new materials, developing new designs and entire new product lines to meet these changing needs.
